

HIGH ALTITUDE
VINEYARDS

Colomé
DESDE 1831

LOTE ESPECIAL MALBEC (La Brava)

Bodega Colomé, since 1831, is the oldest working winery in Argentina. It is located in the Upper Calchaquí Valley and has 4 Estates between 1700m and 3111m, the highest altitude of Argentina, making Colomé a unique project in the world.

Altitude, as it generates microclimates and varied terroirs, is a factor that distinguishes Salta from the rest of the regions from Argentina and worldwide and translates into outstanding expression and diversity in our wines.

VARIETAL: 100% Malbec

VINTAGE: 2019

VINEYARDS: Finca La Brava, 1700m

BOTTLED: June 2020

AGEING: 12 months in Oak Barrels

ALCOHOL: 14.5%

ACIDITY: 5.14 g/l

SUGAR: 3.0 g/l

PH: 3.8

WINEMAKER: Thibaut Delmotte

TASTING NOTES

“Malbec is undoubtedly the emblematic variety of Argentina, in every wine growing province. This Malbec comes from La Brava Estate, located in Cafayate at 1700m”

Bright red, with aromas highlighting mature black and red fruits. Concentrated and complex, it is fresh, with good volume on the palate.