

Colomé

DESDE 1831

Hidden in a nook of the Calchaquí Valleys, Estancia Colomé is one of the most incredible places in Argentina and home to the oldest winery in the country. While staying at this colonial estate you will sense and relive its historical past. You will be taken on a journey back in time as it unfolds the stories and mysteries it has to tell. You will enjoy our unique wines as well as a regional cuisine made with local homegrown ingredients from our garden and our agroecological farm.

We invite you to discover Colomé's natural environment, its landscapes and magical silence. We propose different activities such as hiking, horse riding, or simply unwind by the swimming pool after a game of tennis. At night there is nothing as wonderful as to lie back on your terrace and contemplate the immensity of the Andean star-lit sky.
